

More about Andy

Andy is a licensed attorney and a series 7 general securities representative. He is a Mississippi State University alumnus where he received his Bachelor of Business Administration as well as his Masters of Business Administration. After working for a community bank in his hometown, Andy continued his education receiving his Juris Doctorate from the University of Mississippi School of Law. Prior to joining WealthPartners, he served as a Special Assistant Attorney General serving as legal counsel to the Mississippi Department of Insurance. He is a member of the Mississippi Bar Association and the Estate Planning Council of Mississippi.

Born:

Carthage

Activities & Interests:

Golf, Travel, and the pursuit of the perfect BBQ ribs

Something you may not know:

Andy has recently served as an adjunct professor with the Mississippi State University School of Business.

Favorite Quote:

"We want to have what is offered in the ads but be what is spoken in the obituaries."

John Ortberg